

Experience the Difference that Logitech Brings to Cisco® UC Clients and IP Phones

Logitech has partnered with Cisco® to offer a range of Cisco-compatible¹ UC tools that are so intuitive people actually love to use them, enabling enhanced collaboration and productivity.

Logitech is the first and only company to develop a new way to control the Jabber® collaboration experience. The UC Solution for Cisco 725-C fits the ever-shrinking desktop so it's perfect for small workspaces, hot desking and cubicles. The UC keyboard combo brilliantly integrates voice, video and messaging and makes it easy to collaborate while staying productive. The result: a better UC adoption rate within organizations.

Logitech helps unleash Cisco productivity and collaboration with intuitive designs that are good for people and good for business.
