A FAMILY THAT ACTUALLY GETS ALONG.

Logitech ConferenceCam Kit
with Intel NUC

Logitech® ConferenceCam Kits with Intel® NUC video-enable meeting rooms with plug-and-play simplicity, content sharing, and future-proof flexibility, priced for affordable deployment at any scale. Each includes a Logitech ConferenceCam and Wireless Touch keyboard, Intel NUC, Intel Unite®, and UC Workspace Quicklaunch™ software. A choice of either Logitech MeetUp or Logitech GROUP lets you optimize the user experience for any meeting space.

The Premium option adds a 10.1” touch screen with an integrated HDMI connection for touch-to-join meeting access and wired screen sharing, plus Quicklaunch Professional Edition with calendar integration for instant access to scheduled meetings.

Unlike single-vendor or codec-based solutions, these pre-configured kits provide a consistent experience with any meeting application or service: there’s no need for users to install software on their own laptops or fuss with cables and equipment. Designed for fast deployment and reliable performance, Logitech ConferenceCam Kits with Intel NUC bring self-service video collaboration to everywhere people meet.
MEETUP KIT WITH INTEL NUC
